4. Organized Sessions or Conferences and Papers Presented at Conferences Since 2002

4a. Organized Sessions, Conferences or Other Meetings

- Session chair on Basic human values, at the 8th ESRA conference, Zagreb, July 2019
- Session chair on Contemporary issues in the assessment of measurement invariance, at the 8th ESRA conference, Zagreb, July 2019
- Member of the academic committee of the 5th Ruppiner international conference on immigration and social integration, Ruppiner academic center, Emek Hefer, May 2018
- Session chair on Measurement invariance: Testing for it and explaining why it is absent, at the 7th ESRA conference, Lisbon, July 2017
- Session chair on Basic Human values, at the 7th ESRA conference, Lisbon, July 2017
- Session chair on Cross-national surveys: Challenges to achieve equivalent results, European Sociological Association RN21, Nicosia, October 2016
- Session chair on Methodological challenges and generalizations of the human values theory across cultures, 23rd international congress of the International Association of Cross Cultural Psychology, Nagoya, July-August 2016
- Session chair on Traditional and new approaches to test for measurement invariance across groups, 3MC conference, Chicago, July 2016
- Session chair on Attitudes to immigration in cross-national perspective, the 3rd European Social Survey conference, Lausanne, July 2016
- Member of the academic committee of the 4th Ruppiner international conference on immigration and social integration, Ruppiner academic center, Emek Hefer, May 2016
- Organizing the international working group Structural Equation Modeling meeting, Zurich, April 2016
- Current Issues in Immigration Research with focus on European Societies, workshop organized together with Moshe Semyonov, Collegium Helveticum Zurich, May 2015
- Basic Human values session organizer, at the 6th ESRA conference, Reykjavik, July 2015
- Human values session organizer, invited session at the European Congress of Psychology, Milan, July 2015
- Measurement invariance session organizer, at the European Sociological Association (ESA), RN21 conference on "Modes, Measurement, Modelling: Achieving Equivalence in Quantitative Research", Mannheim, October 2014
- Measurement invariance session organizer, at the European Association of Methodology (EAM) conference, Utrecht, July 2014
- Scientific chair of the 5th ESRA conference, Ljubljana, July 2013
- Basic Human values session organizer, at the 5th ESRA conference, Ljubljana, July 2013

- Organizer of the mini-conference on Measurement invariance: Methods, problems and further directions, Zurich, July 2011
- Vice chair of the 4th ESRA conference, Lausanne, July 2011
- Human values session organizer, at the 4th ESRA conference, Lausanne, July 2011
- Testing for equivalence of theoretical concepts across cultures session, International Sociological Association (ISA) RC-33, Gothenburg, July 2010
- Human values session organizer, at the 3rd ESRA conference, Warsaw, June/July 2009
- Human values session organizer, at the QMSS2 meeting (European Science Foundation), Bolzano, June 2009
- Co-organizer of the Quantitative Methods in the Social Sciences (QMSS2) meeting (European Science Foundation), Bolzano, June 2009
- Testing for equivalence of concepts across cultures session organizer, at the International Sociological Association (ISA) RC-33 conference, Naples, September 2008
- Organizer of two sessions on national identity and attitudes toward immigrants in a comparative perspective, at the International Society of Political Psychology (ISPP) conference, Paris, July 2008
- Human values session organizer, at the 2nd European Survey Research Association (ESRA) conference, Prague, June 2007

4b. Presentations

- Sources of opposition to immigration: The Israeli case. The 4th ESS conference, Mannheim, April 2019
- Human values in the European Social Survey: 2002-2015. How Should We Analyze Country Differences and What Have We Learned About Them? Analytical Strategies and Explanations Based on International Comparative Surveys. Scientific Conference of the Research Training SOCLIFE at the Institute for Sociology and Social Psychology, Cologne, December 2017
- Is Partial Approximate Measurement Invariance Enough? A Simulation Study. GESIS Symposium on Advances in scale development in the social sciences: Issues of comparability, Mannheim, November 2017
- The comparability of measures in the ageism module in the fourth round of the European Social Survey, 2008-2009. GESIS Symposium on Advances in scale development in the social sciences: Issues of comparability, Mannheim, November 2017
- Explaining negative sentiments toward immigrants: Country and individual-level explanations. University of Konstanz' research alumni meeting movement and migration, Tel Aviv University, Tel Aviv, September 2017
- Perceived Threat and Racial Prejudice: Sources of Opposition to Immigration in Five European Countries. European attitudes to immigration conference, British Academy for the humanities and social sciences, London, November 2016
- Keynote speech on measurement invariance. European Sociological Association RN21, Nicosia, October 2016
- Keynote speech on Measurement invariance. GESIS Summer School, Cologne, August 2016
- Bayesian approximate measurement invariance of human values in six rounds of the European Social Survey. International Association of Cross-Cultural Psychology, Nagoya, July-August 2016
- The cross-country comparability of the immigration module in the European Social Survey 2014-15. 3MC conference, Chicago, July 2016
- TV use and attitudes toward immigration in Europe in a cross-country perspective. The 3rd ESS Conference, Lausanne, July 2016
- Searching for the 'Healthy Immigrant' across European countries. Presented at the 23rd International Conference of Europeanists, Philadelphia, April 2016
- The immigration module in the 7th round of the European Social Survey and its research possibilities. Invited presentation at the meeting in the Polish Academy of Sciences on Poland and its European context: Continuity and Change, Warsaw, March 2016
- Value priorities and group-focused enmity. Presented at the European Congress of Psychology (ECP), Milan, July 2015
- Measurement invariance of attitudes toward immigrants. Presented at a seminar in honor of Prof. Moshe Semyonov, Department of Sociology, Tel Aviv University, January 2015
- Values and attitudes towards gay and lesbians. Paper presented at the Amsterdam Research Center for Gender & Sexuality seminar, November 2014.
- Measurement equivalence in cross-national research. Paper presented at the MZES colloquium, University of Mannheim, Mannheim, November 2014
- Approximate measurement invariance of human values in the European Social Survey. Jan Cieciuch, Eldad Davidov, Peter Schmidt and René Algesheimer. Paper presented at the European Sociological Association (ESA), RN21 conference on "Modes, Measurement, Modelling: Achieving Equivalence in Quantitative Research", Mannheim, October 2014

- Using Alignment optimization in establishing measurement invariance. An illustration with the value scale across countries. Paper presented at the European Association of Methodology (EAM) conference, Utrecht, July 2014
- Testing the equivalence of values in Europe with the new PVQ-RR scale. Paper presented at the World Congress of Sociology, Yokohama, July 2014
- Values in comparisons. Paper presented at the School of Cultural and Creative Studies, Aoyama Gakuin University, Tokyo, July 2014
- The Schwartz Values Short Scale (SVSS-4): An economical measurement tool for cross-cultural research (with C. Beierlein). Paper presented at the International Association for Cross-cultural Psychology (IACCP) conference, Reims, July 2014
- Values and attitudes toward immigration. Invited keynoted speech at the University of Giessen, June, 2014
- Changing attitudes towards immigration in times of economic crisis. A cross-national and over-time comparison. Paper presented at the 3rd Ruppin International Conference on Immigration and Social Integration, Ruppin Academic Center, Emek Hefer, Israel, May 2014
- Comparing results of measurement invariance testing: Detecting local misspecification and approximate measurement invariance. An illustration with the new value scale across eight countries. Paper presented at the Meeting of the Working Group Structural Equation Modeling, Frankfurt, March 2014
- Measurement invariance of a new scale to measure 19 human values across countries. Comparing results of continuous, categorical and Bayesian analysis. Paper presented at the 1st Southern European Conference on Survey Methodology (SESM), Barcelona, December 2013
- Keynote speech at the conference ‘Values, crisis and democracy’, GESIS, Cologne, September 2013
- Accounting for social desirability in the measurement of human values. Paper presented at the Structural Equation Modeling working group, University of Bielefeld, February 2013; and at GESIS, March 2013
- Measurement invariance of a scale to measure 19 basic human values across eight countries: Comparing continuous and categorical multigroup confirmatory factor analysis. Paper presented at the research colloquium in Cologne, January 2013
- When do values matter more? Explaining attitudes toward immigration. Paper presented at the international conference of ISA (RC31), Migration and well-Being: research frontiers, Tel Aviv, January 2013
- Commentary on ‘Prejudice, Discrimination, and Threat’ on the topic of ‘Group-Focused Enmity’ at the conference ‘The future of intrasocietal conflict and violence research: An international outlook’, University of Bielefeld, November 2012
- The measurement of human values with the European Social Survey. Presented at Tartu University, Estonia, October 2012
- Measurement invariance. Presented at Tartu University, Estonia, October 2012.
- Discriminant validity in the measurement of values. Presented at the conference ‘validity, reliability and its ramifications for multivariate modeling in the social sciences’, Dresden, September 2012
- Relations between cultural and emotional integration: The case of Germany. Paper presented at the 2nd Ruppin international conference on immigration and integration: New frontiers in research & policy making, Ruppin Academic Center, Emek Hefer, Israel, May 2012.
- Measurement equivalence across countries and over time: The case of nationalism and constructive patriotism in the ISSP 1995 and 2003. Paper presented at the QMSS2 workshop ‘Overtime Analysis in Comparative Research’, Vienna, April 2012.
- Testing for measurement invariance of the PVQ5X questionnaire in ten countries. Beierlein, C., J. Cieciuch, E. Davidov, S. Schwartz and M. Vecchione. Paper presented at the International Association for Cross-Cultural Psychology (IACCP) conference, Istanbul, June/July 2011.
- Evaluating the structure of 19 human values with confirmatory factor analysis. Cieciuch, J., E. Davidov, S. Schwartz, M. Vecchione and C. Beierlein. Paper presented at the International Association for Cross-Cultural Psychology (IACCP) conference, Istanbul, June/July 2011.
- Values in comparative research. Davidov, E. Presented at the Higher School of Economics (HSE) in Moscow, within the international scientific-educational laboratory of socio-cultural research summer school, June 2011.
- Using a multilevel structural equation modeling approach to explain cross-cultural measurement noninvariance. Davidov, E., H. Dülmer, E. Schlüter, P. Schmidt and B. Meuleman. Paper presented at the CSDI workshop in London, March 2011, at the research colloquium in Lausanne, FORS, April 2011, at the Methodology meeting of the American Sociological Association in Tilburg, May 2011, and at the mini-conference on measurement invariance: Methods, problems and further directions, Zurich, July 2011.
- Testing the equivalence of an instrument to assess Schwartz’ human values: How harmful are translations? Davidov, E. and A. de Beuckelaer. Paper presented at the 3rd ESRA conference, Warsaw, June/July 2009, at the CSDI conference, Lausanne, March 2010, at the ‘entrance lecture’ at the University of Zurich, March 2010, and at the research colloquium in Konstanz, Sociology, June 2010.

- Explaining noninvariance in the universalism value across 26 countries using multilevel analysis. Davidov, E., H. Dülmer, E. Schlüter and P. Schmidt. Paper presented at the 3rd ESRA conference, Warsaw, June/July 2009, and at the research colloquium in Bern, Sociology, November 2009.
- Religion and values from a comparative perspective. The relation between religious involvement and value priorities in 30 European countries. Meuleman, B., E. Davidov and B. Cambré. Paper presented at the 3rd ESRA conference, Warsaw, June/July 2009.
- Value orientations of Muslims in Europe. Davidov, E., P. Schmidt and S. H. Schwartz. Paper presented at the 3rd ESRA conference, Warsaw, June/July 2009.
- Negative media portrayals of immigrants give rise to majority members' perceived group threat: A longitudinal analysis. Schlüter, E. and E. Davidov. Paper presented at the 3rd ESRA conference, Warsaw, June/July 2009 and at the DGS conference, Frankfurt, October 2010.
- Using latent growth modeling to explain level and change in group-focused enmity in Germany, 2002-2006. Paper presented at the Swiss Household Panel conference in Lausanne, June 2009, and at the statistical analysis of longitudinal/panel data structures arising from complex interdisciplinary questions workshop, Center for Interdisciplinary Research (ZIF), Bielefeld University, April 2010.
- Explaining attitudes toward immigration policies in Europe, 2002-2007. Davidov, E. Paper presented at the research colloquium at the ETH, Zurich, May 2009.
- Comparing evolutions of attitudes toward immigration in Europe, 2002-2007. A dynamic approach of group threat theory. Meuleman, B., E. Davidov and J. Billiet. Paper presented at the 3MC conference, Berlin, June 2008, ISPP, Paris, July 2008, and ISA-RC33 conference, Naples, September, 2008.
- Testing for invariance of the human values across countries and over time with three rounds of the European Social Survey. Davidov, E. Paper presented at the Structural Equation Modeling working group, University of Duisburg-Essen, February 2008; the mini-conference on composite scores, ESADE Barcelona, February 2008; the mini-conference on survey quality, WZB Berlin, June 2008; 3MC conference, Berlin, June 2008, and at the QMSS2 meeting (European Science Foundation), Bolzano, June 2009.
- Values and support for immigration. A cross-country comparison. Davidov, E., B. Meuleman, J. Billiet and P. Schmidt. Paper presented at the 2nd ESRA conference, Prague, June 2007, and at the research colloquium, Mannheim University.
- A cross-country and cross-time comparison of the human values measurements with the second round of the European Social Survey. Davidov, E. Paper presented at the 2nd ESRA conference, Prague, June 2007, and at the research colloquium, Köln University, June 2007.
- Measurement equivalence of nationalism and patriotism in the ISSP 2003: 34 countries in comparative perspective. Davidov, E. Paper presented at the QMSS conference, European Science Foundation, Prague, June 2007; colloquium of Prof. P. Schmidt and Prof. D. Krebs, University of Giessen, February 2008; ISPP conference, Paris, July 2008.
- Testing the stability of an acquiescence style factor behind two interrelated substantive variables in a panel design. Billiet, J. and E. Davidov. Paper presented at the 2nd ESRA conference, Prague, June 2007.
- Values and attitudes towards immigrants: A comparison between Germany and Israel. Davidov, E. and P. Schmidt. Paper presented at the workshop 'Immigration, public opinion and governmental policies', Pompeu Fabra University, Barcelona, March 2007.
- Stochastic differential equation models or autoregressive cross-lagged and latent growth curve models? Causal relations between anomia and authoritarianism in a three-wave panel-data in Germany. Voelkle, M., E. Davidov, P. Schmidt and H. Oud. Paper presented at the 1st ESRA conference, Barcelona, July 2005; ISA-RC33, Naples, September 2008; Panel-data conference, Lausanne, June 2009.
- An empirical comparison of two approaches to estimate interaction effects in structural equation models. Steinmetz, H., E. Davidov and P. Schmidt. Paper presented at the SMABS and 2nd EAM conference, Budapest, July 2006, and at the workshop of the AG Strukturgleichungsmodelle at Bielefeld University, March 2007.
- Friends, education or money? Effects of social-, human- and financial-capital on home-ownership inequality between immigrants and natives in Switzerland. Davidov, E. Paper presented at the RC-28 conference of the ISA, Nijmegen, May 2006; and at the Modelbildung und Simulation (model building and simulation) conference, Max-Planck Institute, Köln, March 2006.
- What does a nation owe to non-citizens? National attachments, perception of threat and attitudes towards granting citizenship rights in comparative perspective. Davidov, E., P. Schmidt, R. Raijman and O. Hochman. Paper presented at the RC-28 conference of the ISA, Nijmegen, May 2006.
- Housing and social capital in Germany and Switzerland. Davidov, E. Paper presented at the Modelbildung und Simulation (model building and simulation) conference, Max Planck Institute, Köln, March 2006.
- Group-related enmity in Germany. Theoretical conception and empirical results in 2002-2004. Paper presented at the conference on Group-Focused Enmity (GFE), Bielefeld, February 2006.
- Values in Europe: A multiple group comparison with 20 countries using the European social survey 2003. Davidov, E., P. Schmidt and S. Schwartz. Paper presented at the RC-33 conference, ISA, Amsterdam, August 2004; the RC-28 conference, ISA, Oslo, May 2005; the 1st ESRA conference, Barcelona, July 2005; SMABS - 2nd EAM conference, Budapest, July 2006.

- The dynamics of authoritarianism and anomia: Applying autoregressive cross-lagged and latent growth models to a three-wave panel study. Schlüter, E., E. Davidov and P. Schmidt. Paper presented at the RC-33 conference, ISA, Amsterdam, August 2004.
- Problems in cross-cultural comparison of values using the European Social Survey. Invited speech at the QMSS, European Science Foundation, Lugano, August 2004 and 2006.
- Modelling longitudinal data of an intervention study on travel model choice: Combining latent growth curves and autoregressive models. Davidov, E., P. Schmidt and S. Bamberg. Paper presented at the Modelbildung und Simulation (model building and simulation) conference, Max-Planck Institute for Demography, Rostock, October 2003.
- Time and money: An empirical explanation of behaviour in the context of travel-mode choice with the German microcensus. Davidov, E., P. Schmidt, P. and S. Bamberg. Paper presented at the Nutzerkonferenz: Forschung mit dem Mikrozensus, ZUMA, Mannheim, October 2003.
- Is there any interaction effect between intention and perceived behavioural control? F. Yang-Wallentin, P. Schmidt, E. Davidov and S. Bamberg. Paper presented at the SMABS conference, Tilburg, July 2002.

5. Books and edited special issues

- Special issue on immigration from the Migrants' Perspective. Edited by Ramos, A., E. Davidov, P. Schmidt, M.R. Villar and D. Makileyson. Social Inclusion. In Progress.
- Special issue on measurement invariance: Testing for it and explaining why it is absent. Edited by Meitinger, K., E. Davidov, M. Braun and P. Schmidt. Survey Research Methods. In Progress.
